

Country Joe's

“Monthly Open Mic” - Every 2nd Friday in 2010!

April 9, 2010 at 7 PM at the BFUU

Musicians Note: Lottery sign-up for performers begins at 6:30 pm sharp!
Get your name into the hat! Pick your time spot when your name is called.

The legendary “Country Joe” is best known for his 1969 Woodstock performance, social justice & anti-war songs, Woody Guthrie & Florence Nightingale tributes, & Berkeley community spirit.

<http://www.countryjoe.com>

Vic Sadot will Host & Sing Out!

Vic is a singer-songwriter in the “roots & struggle” tradition of songwriters like Woody Guthrie, Pete Seeger, Phil Ochs, and Bob Dylan. Since arriving in Berkeley in October 2008

Vic has learned to make and post music videos on line.

<http://www.youtube.com/vicsadot>

<http://www.myspace.com/vicsadotsrazyplanetband>

Our “Featured Artist” for APRIL 9, 2010: Talk Half Full

TankHalfFull is a fusion of original Americana, Blues & Folk music. The acoustic trio is led by the songwriting talents of Chris Head, partnered with the musical talents of Kev Beers on standard & upright bass, and Bob Willett on harmonica. Formed in 2008, the group has played in the SF Bay area and has recorded their debut self-titled CD “TankHalfFull”. The trio distinguishes itself by being quiet and dynamic at the same time.

<http://www.myspace.com/tankhalfull>

Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian Universalists (BFUU) Hall

1924 Cedar Street (at Bonita St) Wheelchair Accessible: Yes!

1 block west of MLK Way / 2 blocks east of Shattuck in North Berkeley

Suggested donations of $5 - 10 will benefit the BFUU & cover expenses.
No one is turned away for lack of funds!

Sponsored by the BFUU Social Justice Committee

<http://www.bfuu.org>